

Crunchtime Insights

Take data from across your business and bring it to life in visual dashboards that enable you to not only view data, but act on it.

More Insights to Equip Your Teams

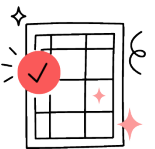

Access Your Crunchtime Data in One Place

Crunchtime Insights combines Inventory, Labor, Ops Execution, and POS data into one dashboard. Get a comprehensive view to compare performance and create powerful reports across your entire business.

Greater Visibility, Better Decisions

Easily share critical reports with field teams, managers, and executives without counting users or extra fees. Put data insights into the hands of those who need it most to empower faster decisions.

Business Intelligence Without the Overhead

Get deep analytical power without the cost and complexity of a third-party BI tool. Use pre-built templates or create custom reports from scratch for smarter decisions every day.

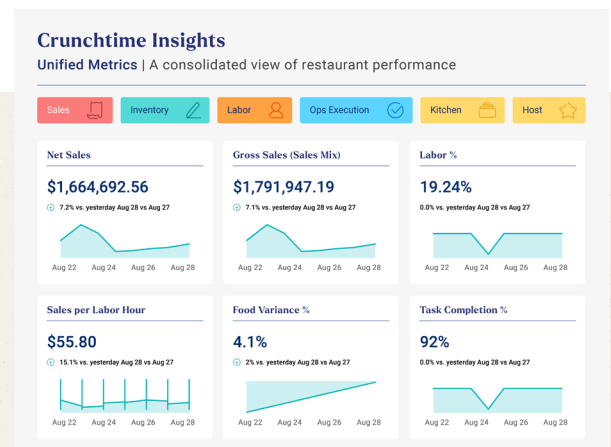

Empower Your Teams With Goals

Align your organization by pushing key metrics directly to your teams. This transparency empowers managers to make data-driven decisions that contribute directly to corporate goals.

Crunchtime Insights acts as a single source of truth by pulling in data from all your business operations, including Inventory, Labor, Ops Execution, and POS data and brings it to life in visual reports that make data easy to understand.

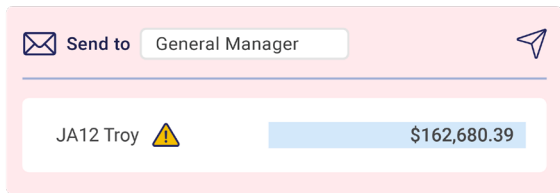

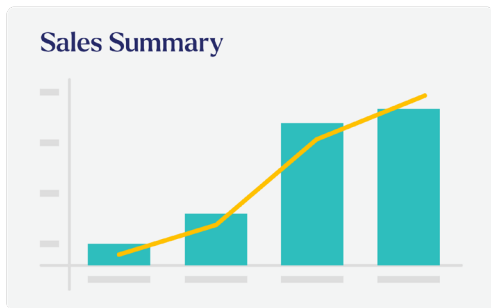

This is business intelligence made simple.
