

Bite-size training. Big-time impact.

With Crunchtime's partnership with iAM Learning, quickly train and upskill your team in minutes, not hours

Short courses for busy staff

Because courses run from 2 to 15 minutes, your staff can learn what they need—fast.

Engaging, animated content

The courses' animated storytelling makes learning fun and easier to remember.

Certified content with global reach

Courses are IOSH and CPD certified so you can feel confident your team is being trained the right way.

Works on any device, any time

Courses work on desktop or mobile so your team can learn how they want.
